Let praises fill the sky, Alleluya! Amen!

His goodness we'll adore
Singing forevermore, Alleluya! Amen!

REFLECTIONS on today's scriptures Today, the last Sunday of the liturgical year, we are celebrating the Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. We know from the Gospels that Jesus refused the title of king when it was meant politically, by the standards of the 'rulers of the Gentiles' (Mt 20.25). On the other hand, during his Passion, he claimed a unique kingship before Pilate, who explicitly asked him 'So you are a king?', and Jesus answered, 'You say that I am a king' (Jn 18.37). However, moments before, he's qualified it ... 'My kingship is not the worldly sort' (Jn 18.36). The Father entrusted two missions to His Son: (1) to give mankind eternal life by loving us 'right through to the end'

Relic of the Crown of Thorns, Paris

as St John puts it. And, having done so, being mankind's strongest advocate (2) He gave Him power to judge humanity.

Today's Gospel insists precisely on the universal kingship of Christ the Judge, with the stupendous parable of the Last Judgment. The images are simple, the language is popular, but the message is extremely important: it tells about our ultimate destiny and about how we will be evaluated. "I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me" (Mt 25.35) and so forth.

Pope's prayer request Each month, the Holy Father asks for our prayers for a specific intention. In December the Pope asks the Church to pray daily for persons with disabilities that they may be at the centre of attention in society, and that institutions may offer inclusive programs which value their active participation.

Holy Land The Archbishop's Council has discussed how our diocese can support the overwhelming needs in Israel-Palestine, and the cardinal has written to say:

- 1 The crib offerings this year will be applied, as always, to the Catholic Children's Society for the relief of poverty at home.
- 2 a special collection in response to the appeal of the Latin Patriarch will be taken in the diocese immediately after Christmas
- 3 In the meantime donations can be given for immediate use in the following networks:

- cafod.org.uk/give/donate-to-emergencies/
- embraceme.org/gazacrisis
- abcbethlehem.org/abcd-news/abcd-crisis-appeal

Next Sunday evening, 6pm @ St John's will be the Stanmore churches' annual Advent joint evening prayer. The preacher will be the Revd Andy Rider, Dean of Mission in the Stepney Area of the Anglican Diocese. I encourage you to join me there. Fr JG

16 December Fr Jonathan will be leading an Advent retreat morning (10-2) at St John Fisher 80 Imperial Close HA2 7LW

First Confession and Holy Communion 2024 Starting in January, there will be classes most Sundays until the end of May. The application forms are now available. Please return them to Fr J or Carol-Anne by mid-December.

Winter weather safety As the weather gets colder, and ice and snow appear: please take care in the car park, on the steps and approaches to the church and sacristy. They'll be gritted for your safety, but use your common sense too.

Christmas Cards are in! ... the Repository. They're from Aid to the Church in Need. Please support this.

Who does not know this passage? It is part of our basic civilization. It has deeply marked the history of the peoples of Christian culture: the scale of values, the institutions, the laws, the welfare state, multiple charitable and social bodies. Though the kingdom of Christ is not of a worldly sort, it brings to fulfilment all the good that exists in humanity and in history. If love for our neighbour is put into practice in accordance with the Gospel, room is made for God's rule and his reign is made real among us. If, instead, each one thinks only of their own interests, the world can only go to ruin.

Week-long votive lamps From next Sunday, we shall launch a new prayer initiative here that happens in many other parishes. A week-long lamp (£10 donation per lamp) will burn for your intentions in one of three places: the altar of Our Lady, or beside St William or St Catherine on the Sanctuary. It will be noted in the Newsletter. Collect envelopes today ...

Stuck for a Christmas present? Why not consider giving a copy of the Catechism of the Catholic Church? Either the full thing: £15 paperback; or the Compendium version: £9 hardback. Get those questions answered ...

Looking ahead to Mark from 3 December the Church will begin reading St Mark at Sunday Masses. Why not start as you mean to go on? and invest in knowing this gospel (which is the shortest) a bit better. Here are six recommendations you might look for on Amazon: A = short; B = bit longer C = a rewarding big read.

Pope Francis	The Gospel of Mark	A
Bishop Rowan Williams	Meeting God in Mark	A
Bishop Tom [N T] Wright	Mark for Everyone	A
Scott Hahn	Ignatius Gospel of Mark	B
Mary Healy	The Gospel of Mark	B
R T France	The Gospel of Mark	C

Readers and servers We need to expand our lists of readers and servers at Mass, younger and older; male or female. Support and training will be given. Please speak to Fr J.

Know St William's past? The remaining copies of the parish history, written by Carol-Anne Chandler, are available in the Narthex for a suggested price of £5 (to parish funds).

So you can plan, Christmas Mass times will be as follows

Sat 23 Dec	5.30pm Vigil Mass

Christmas Eve	5.30pm Christmas Vigil for families
NB...	10pm Carols, Readings and 'Mass during the Night'
Mon 25	8am 'Mass at Dawn'

There will be plenty of opportunities for Confession throughout the week before. Please do not neglect it.
