Prepare for next Sunday's Mass

https://instituteofcatholicculture.org/reflections/sunday-gospel https://www.wordonfire.org/videos/sermons/

A WARM WELCOME to Mass today, especially if you are new to the parish. Please take this newsletter home and use the calendar in your daily prayer.

- ◆ Before Mass, when the tower bell rings, pray together: ALMIGHTY GOD, to whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hidden; cleanse the thoughts of our hearts, by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name; through Christ our Lord. Please, let's now keep silence together until Mass begins.
- ◆ During Mass, parents and carers, please feel free to do what you need to keep children content and quiet. Do not hesitate to move around church with them. (The service is amplified into the Narthex too.) And, for everybody's safety, please accompany any child who needs to use the toilet while you're in church. Thanks.
- ◆ The ORDER of Mass on the new pew Mass Card.
- ◆ Today's readings are to be found on pp.137-139 of the Parish Mass Book. And the psalm response is: 'The vineyard of the Lord is the House of Israel.'

REFLECTIONS on today's readings October traditionally signals the end of harvest time. Though changes in weather patterns have advanced the start to mid-July and this year the season was near complete by 12 September. One of the harvests which has the greatest impact on life is the grape harvest. We drink more and more wine, and the English nose and palate are becoming increasingly discerning. Palestine had vineyards in the time of Jesus and, judging by the parables the Church has put before us for the past three weeks, not only was He familiar with their workings but He portrayed the human relations characteristic of vineyards as a reflection of the relationship between God and his people. In St John's gospel Jesus uses the image of the vine itself to describe the relationship between himself and his disciples. Pope Benedict has a masterly presentation of this image in Scripture in wonderful Jesus of Nazareth book (2007, pp.248-63).

First Reading (OT): Isaiah 5.1–7 Most songs in our culture, as well as in classical music are love songs. And this extract from the prophet Isaiah is an ancient love song. It tells of the owner's exhaustion with his vineyard: his disappointment with it and the violent reaction his disappointment brings. He had done all he could to cultivate and protect it: what more could he have done? We know from the scriptures that he did in fact do much more for it. He had sent the prophets. He had turned history on its head by the defeat of powerful Babylon to save his beloved vineyard, Israel. Finally, in the person of Jesus of Nazareth, the owner sent his only son to care for his vineyard. He had done his very best to demonstrate his love for it. He could not see his vineyard fall into ruin. But it is His total commitment that saves it.

Second Reading (NT): Philippians 4.6–9 We were already living in an age of increased and widespread anxiety well before Covid turned our world upside-down

"Without prayer, there will be no Synod," Pope Francis

Please pray this short Litany, daily:

O Holy Spirit, Creator and Lord of the Church who fills and guides Christ's Body, and gently urges her ever onward, to you Giver of Life! we address this prayer:

Come, Holy Spirit, soul of the Church: gather into unity and make fruitful the toil, the hope, and the desire of everyone involved in the Synod Assembly, we implore you.

Come, Beauty of the lowly and the poor, build up the beautiful bride of the Lamb through the tears of those who love peace and hunger for justice, we invoke you.

Come, unapproachable Wisdom, and fill us with your gifts pf discipleship, communion and mission, we beseech you.

Sacred Heart of Jesus have mercy on us. Immaculate Heart of Mary pray for us.

– at least since the global financial crisis a decade before that. We were increasingly worried about international security threats, the rise of populist politics and dictators, irreversible global warming and climate change. How could we not be worried? Not to be concerned, especially for the powerless of the world and the rising generation of young people, would surely be grossly irresponsible? And yet this scripture passage brings us great peace. We are at peace as long as we remain united with the Lord Jesus. He provides us with inner strength; we shelter under his protecting wing; we have the security that the God who brings us peace is with us.

Gospel: Matthew 21.33–43 It is significant indeed that Matthew includes this parable in his gospel, writing as he was at the time when the fate of the Jewish people was being decided by their defeat by the Imperial Roman forces, and the destruction of the Jerusalem temple in AD 70. The landowner's son in the story would easily be identified by the early Christians with Jesus, the people to whom stewardship of God's vineyard had passed. This parable tells the tragic love song of the Jewish people.

Mass Snippet No.2 alongside our new Mass cards
Three ancient Catholic habits for us all to notice, and make into habits from the Introductory Rites (front page):
I 'All make the Sign of the Cross' It's our first action together:
We gather together at Christ's table to be fed – but it is the 'Supper of the Lamb' – who was killed but is now alive
2 'All striking their breast three times' This is an outward gesture during confession (which we say to one another not just God!) of our acknowledgement, responsibility, and sorrow for sin.
3 'All pray in silence for a while.' Before the priest says the opening prayer this is a powerful moment to be still together, to pray in silence, and offer our private prayers.
